JOURNAL of the TIMES.

Nov. 1. THE laſt night a ſoldier paſſed the guards, at the ſouth part of the town, and was haled, not anſwering, they followed and fired at him ſeveral s, and being impeded in running by the ſea-weed on the ch, he was taken and brought back to the guards: This was preſent at the execution in the morning, but nothing ke to prevent deſertion while the troops remain in this e.

n houſholder at the weſt part of the town, hearing the of two women in the night, who were rudely treated by ſoldiers, ventured to expoſtulate with them for this viour, for which boldneſs he was knocked down with a et and much wounded, they went off undiſcovered; her had a thruſt with a bayonet near his eye, and a leman of this town informs, that a day or two before hyſician already mentioned met with his abuſe, he overd ſeveral officers diſcourſing, when one of them ſaid, if ould meet that Doctor he would do for him.

he troops ſtill occupy the Town-Houſe, and the main d is fixed in a houſe on the ſouth ſide of the ſame, and pieces of mounted cannon planted before the door.

purſuance of a complaint made to Mr. Juſtice Dana, Ruddock, relative to Captain Willſon and others, a ant was iſſued by thoſe Juſtices for taking up ſaid llſon and bringing him before them, which was delivered enjamin Cudworth, a deputy ſheriff of the county, who g oppoſed in the execution of it, applied to the high iff, who with divers conſtables went to apprehend him; irſt he alſo met with oppoſition from one of the officers, the ſaid Willſon ſoon after ſurrendered himſelf to the iff, who brought him before the Juſtices at Faneuil-Hall, ch was crowded with people; and after the examination livers witneſſes upon oath, the complaint was ſo well ported, that the Juſtices ordered him to become bound ſufficient ſureties for his appearance at the ſuperior court March next, to what ſhall then be alledged againſt him, ching the matters complained of, as alſo for his good beiour in the mean time.

Nov. 2. Two men and a lad coming over the Neck into town, were haled by one guard and paſſed them: Soon er they were challenged by another, they replied they had t anſwered one, but they hoped they were all friends; on which a ſoldier made a paſs or two with his bayonet at e of them, who parried the bayonet at firſt, but was afterards badly cut on the head and grieviouſly wounded in vers parts of his body. One paſſing the ſouth town watch as challenged but not ſtopped, he drew his ſword and ourniſhed it at the watch, uſing very inſulting language; he as then diſcovered to be an officer a little diſguiſed, another on joined him, full as abuſive, both declared that if they had een challenged in the ſtreet and no orders ſhewn, they would ave deprived the watchman of his life. A country man alſo coming into town, was thought to have approached earer the guards than he ſhould have done, for which ofence he was knocked off his horſe with a muſket. The ther evening three officers unknown being together at the outh part of the town, were heard to ſay, by a perſon of redit, "that if the negroes could be made freemen, they ould be ſufficient to ſubdue theſe damned rebels." Perhaps theſe doings and others of a like nature, are exhibited as ecimens of the lenient and perſuaſive methods, which Lord ——ls——gh intimates are to be taken to bring back his Majeſty's miſled ſubjects to a ſenſe of their duty; be this as may, the ſufferers and the abuſed are ſeeking ſatisfaction a legal manner.

This night orders were it is ſaid read to the officers to ld the troops in readineſs againſt the morrow, as a large ob was then expected.

Nov. 3. We can now account for the orders of the laſt ght. This morning Mr. Arodi Thayer, Marſhal of the ourt of Admiralty for three provinces, with a hanger at ſide, came to the houſe of John Hancock, Eſq; to ſerve n with a precept for 9000l. ſterling, and having arreſted perſon, demanded bail for 3000l. ſterling, Mr. Hancock fered him divers eſtates to the value thereof, which were ſolutely refuſed; he then made him an offer of 3000l. in oney, and afterwards of 9000l. which were alſo refuſed; r. Thayer alledging that ſuch were his directions. Mr. ancock however having heard of the orders and expectatia of the laſt evening, prudently determined to give bail, did five other gentlemen arreſted for the ſame ſum, and the ſame account from the like prudent motives. Thus e commiſſioners of the cuſtoms not ſatisfied with the ſeizg and forfeiture of the Sloop Liberty, for a non-entry of part of her cargo of Madera wine, which before the merican Revenue Acts were duty free, have gone beyond ery thing of the kind before heard of in America, in oſecuting the ſuppoſed owner, and each perſon, they magined concerned in unloading the wines, for the value of e whole cargo, and treble damages.—The public will now partially judge, whether this conduct does not bear much e ſame complexion which his Majeſty's council expreſſly deared of the ſeizure of ſaid Sloop, namely to occaſion a ault, and thereby give the ſame colouring for a neceſſity of artering the troops contrary to act of parliament in the by of the town, inſtead of the barracks at Caſtle-Iſland, t was originally given for their being ordered here.

This day at a General Council, the G——r, as we told, reminded them of an important article, of Lord Hillſborough's letter, viz. where he "ſtrongly recommends a reform of the magiſtrates of the town, ſince they have ſome of them been heretofore deficient in the execution of their truſt, and hopes, that ſuch gentlemen will be found to fill up thoſe important places, who will be zealous to ſupport the law and the conſtitutional authority of parliament." As to the firſt part the G——r was pleaſed to ſay, that he ſhould not at preſent enter upon it, but as to the latter he had and ſhould be caſting about in his mind, who were the proper perſons to be appointed; he then was pleaſed to nominate the new appointed Juſtice Murray, as a juſtice of the Quorum, but the board are to have it under conſideration till the next General Council.——It appears Lord Hillſborough has been greatly abuſed in the accounts ſent from hence: We know of no magiſtrate who has been deficient in the execution of his truſt, but this we know, that no one of them had the preſence of the G——r to countenance them, nor did the ſheriff, whoſe duty on all ſuch occaſions is to be preſent and active, even make his appearance, but the inhabitants were left to exert themſelves, and finally by their own virtue ſuppreſſed the tumults and reſtored order to the town.——The nomination of the Quorum may ſhew the people how much the G——r deſpiſes the murmurs or ſentiments relating to any part of his conduct.

Nov. 4. The following letter taken from a Gazetteer of Auguſt 26, has been ſhewn in the laſt Thurſday's paper, viz. Whereas it has been publicly reported, that the Earl of Hillſborough has neglected to deliver a petition from the aſſembly of the Maſſachuſetts-Bay to his Majeſty, at a time when his lordſhip had not even ſeen the ſaid petition. I think it my duty to inform the public, that ſuch inſinuations are entirely groundleſs. My reaſons for any delay and proceedings therewith, I have duly given the aſſembly in my letters to them of the 12th and 18th of March, and 27th of June. DENNYS DE BERDT.

By this letter it appears that a young ſecretary has been able to make a ſcreen of an old agent: The truth is that our aſſembly were informed, that when this letter firſt got to hand, the Great were ſtill engaged in electioneering, which prevented its being handed to Lord Hillſborough; but we were ſoon led to underſtand that a petition offered by Mr. De Berdt, could not be preſented to his Majeſty, he being an agent for the houſe only; a block thrown in the way by our good G——r, who had the laſt winter endeavoured that the aſſembly might join the council in choice of an agent, who if not choſen thro' his influence, would yet have been ſubjected to his negative: And be it known, that in all provincial letters and inſtructions to their agent, the concurrence of the ſeveral branches of government has not been thought neceſſary; in which caſe our repreſentatives could never in a regular way, have conveyed to adminiſtration, the pure unadultered ſentiments and views of their conſtituents, as has been done by them for ſome time paſt; tho' our enemies have falſely aſſerted, that they were only the ſentiments of a faction.

Nov. 5. Laſt evening the guards were withdrawn from the cellar of the manufactory houſe, and Mr. Brown, and the other manufacturers are again permitted to purſue ther ſeveral buſineſſes; they have ſtill a right of action for damages againſt the ſheriff and other treſpaſſers; and it may be remarked, that he is the firſt civil officer of the province, who ever applied for the aid of the King's troops, and this before he had taken the previous ſteps which the law required.—— This day the Pope and other effigies were carried through the town, as on theſe anniverſaries it is cuſtomary, with great decency and decorum, agreeable to their reſolution of 1765, which has been practiſed ever ſince.

Nov. 6. This being Lord's Day, the minds of ſerious people at public worſhip, were greatly diſturbed with drums beating and fifes playing, unheard of before in this land ——What an unhappy influence muſt this have upon the minds of children and others, in eradicating the ſentiments of morality and religion, which a due regard to that day has a natural tendency to cultivate and keep alive.

Nov. 7. John Fenton, Eſq; allied by marriage to the late Surveyor General, has been removed from his place of Deputy Receiver of the new duty, and Nathaniel Coffin, Eſq; appointed in his room. The Receiver General reſides in this town.

A court of admiralty this day, when the libels entered againſt John Hancock, Eſq; and others, were read, and the court adjourned to the 28th inſtant.

Letters from Jamaica acquaint us, that the General Aſſembly there was diſſolved on the 22d of September laſt, by the Lieutenant Governor of that iſland, for their not complying with his Majeſty's expreſs command, for payment of the monies iſſued by the treaſury of Great-Britain, for the iſland ſubſiſtence of the troops ſtationed there during the diſcontinuance of their aſſembly.——A diſputs may alſo ariſe with us relative to the barracks and billeting of troops here, during the diſcontinuance of our General Aſſembly: The G——r as alſo Colonel D——lple, declared before the council that they made no demand for the hiring of barracks, but only for the utenſils and billeting, they being at liberty to hire barracks on the King's account; this was perhaps to draw the C——l into a vote for providing barracks, utenſils, and billeting, which was then repreſented as the utmoſt that would be deſired on account of the troops; but it is now intimated by the G——r that the charge of barracks muſt be finally deſrayed by the province.——We have alſo advice from South-Carolina, that their new aſſembly was to meet on the 25th ultimo: As it was imagined they would not recede from the reſolutions of the Maſſachuſetts ninety-two, which are highly applauded in that Province, a diſſolution of that aſſembly was expected ſoon after.—— The Britiſh miniſtry ſeems to have adopted French maxims and cuſtoms with reſpect to their treatment of American parliaments, which muſt not only be well reliſhed by a free people, but be ſoon productive of very ſalutary effects.

Nov. 8. The commiſſioners of the American board of cuſtoms, have this day thought proper to leave Caſtle-William, the ſeat of their choſen reſidence for ſome time paſt, and to make their re-entry into this metropolis.——We wiſh we had full evidence, that during this receſs, they had not been fully employed in tranſmitting ſuch accounts, and projecting thoſe meaſures, that have had too direct a tendency to enflame and further embroil the mother country and the colonies; and this at a time when a return of mutual affection and confidence is ſo neceſſary for the preſervation and happineſs of both.——A letter makes its appearance in the Court Gazette, exactly in the ſtile of the true patriot, the writer aſſerts, "That Mr. HOLLOWELL, by his temperate caution and care not to aggravate any thing in his accounts, has given general ſatisfaction," he condoles us as, "fatally miſled by evil-minded men of malicious diſpoſitions, into meaſures which tend to public ruin," and declares "that the nonſenſe of Wilkes and Liberty is now at an end; that no one ever made a queſtion about the propriety and neceſſity of ſhooting forty men among the rioters at Huxam, in 1757, but when ill humours are ſet afloat, (a phraſe borrowed from a Governor's ſpeech) the cleareſt point will be diſputed; that the King's ſervants ſeem determined to maintain the ſupreme legiſlative authority of Great-Britain, and if our people flatter themſelves with indulgence in their frowardneſs, they will be deceived; as in ſhort all men of underſtanding, except a few intereſted merchants who are afraid of their American debts, are calling out for a much greater exertion of authority."

Whether the above is London or Boſton manufacture, the public may judge; be this as it may, it certainly carries the plain mark of the beaſt in its forehead: The writer, who is probably the one that has been ſoliciting for a thouſand a year out of the American revenue in addition to his preſent ſalary, ſeems to make quite light of the intereſt of the Britiſh merchants; the revenue, is all and in all with him; to ſecure which he calls out for ſtill greater exertions of power, and what cares he, tho' theſe merchants ſhould loſe the ſeveral millions due to them from America, in ſo ridiculous a ſcuffle: But know it B——d, ſo ſoon as the people of Britain ſhall put the whole produce of the American revenue into one ſcale, and the profits and advantages of their colony trade in the other, they will perceive the former at once to kick the beam:——Then, and not till then, may we expect to ſee ſome men, who from ſelfiſh views, have projected and recommended ſchemes deſtructive to the commerce of Britain, and the welfare of the colonies, reap the fruits of their doings, and thoſe who have generouſly preferred the intereſt of the nation to their own, the honours and applauſe they are juſtly entitled to.

Nov. 9. Yeſterday the ſuperior court met by adjournment at the court-houſe. In the afternoon a motion was made by J——s O——s, Eſq; one of the bar, that the court would adjourn to Faneuil-Hall, not only as the ſtench occaſioned by the troops in the repreſentatives chamber, may prove infectious, but as it was derogatory to the honour of the court to adminiſter juſtice at the mouths of cannon, and the points of bayonets.—This day the troops were removed from that chamber, much to the ſatisfaction of the people, who have look'd upon their being placed there at firſt by the G——r as an inſult upon the whole province.

The town-houſe watch being on the return at 2 o'clock in the morning, heard a great noiſe and uproar in the ſtreets, they ſoon found it was made by a number of officers, and preſuming to ſpeak to them, tho' with great mildneſs, they were threatened with being ſeized and put in irons, and otherways inſulted in a groſs manner.——Several ſoldiers, late at night, entered the houſe of Mr. Juſtice W——ls, and in humble imitation of ſome of their ſuperiors, were very free with the blacks, to whom they declared a liking, and that their aſſiſtance was wanted; the Juſtice being confined by ſickneſs, was obliged to call in the aſſiſtance of ſome neighbours, who coming armed ſoon forced thoſe intruders to decamp.——A married woman living in Long Lane, returning home in the night, was ſeized by the neck and almoſt ſtrangled, ſhe was then thrown upon the ground, and treated with great indecencies: Another woman at New-Boſton was rudely handled. Mr. N——w——l of Needham, paſſing near the town gates, was ſtruck with a muſket, and without the leaſt provocation, received another ſtroke from a drunken guard, which ſtunned him.——The mention of ſuch abuſes as theſe is by no means intended to inſinuate a want of care in the commanding officers, but to ſhew the great impropriety and grievance of quartering troops in the town, in as much as even under the eye of the General, the inhabitants are expoſed to ſuch great inſults and injuries.

A large guard-houſe for the ſoldiery is erected on the town land, near the neck, and almoſt finiſhed, notwithſtanding Mr. Pierpoint, who had hired it of the ſelectmen for about 4 years paſt, did, by their order, and before witneſſes, forbid their erecting the ſame.——Theſe are times in which no inhabitant knows what ground he ſtands upon, or can call his own.

A general council this day, at which we hear the G——r propoſed his publiſhing a proclamation relative to the Juſtices of the town, founded on what Lord Hillſborough has written, concerning their conduct in the late times; the council did not approve of this propoſal, being aware it would have led ſome to conclude that they were not of the Lord that ſaid Lord had been impoſed upon in the accounts tranſmitted from hence, reſpecting the behaviour of theſe magiſtrates.

Nov. 10. This day the G———r required the attendance of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the peace, at the council chamber; they attended accordingly. James Murray, Eſq; the firſt made juſtice on the reforming plan, being among them; when, to keep up the appearance of their having been negligent in their duty, Lord Hillſborough's letter was read to them; after which they were exhorted by the G———r, to a faithful and deligent diſcharge of the duties of their office:——We do not hear that it was recommended to them to proceed according to law, with thoſe who have quartered the troops upon us, or againſt ſuch officers and ſoldiers as have inſulted the public, injured and abuſed the ſubject, and thus broken the King's peace.

Several large tranſports juſt arrived from Cork, having on board part of the 64th and 65th regiments. The remainder with the Huſſar frigate, were parted with in a ſtorm ten days ago.——It is to be hoped that the arrival of theſe troops will lead ſome officers to conclude that the aid and countenance of our negro gentry may now be diſpenſed with.

Nov. 11. What an appearance does Boſton now make? One of the firſt commercial towns in America, has now ſeveral regiments of ſoldiers quartered in the midſt of it, and even the merchants exchange is picquetted, and made the ſpot where the main guard is placed and paraded, and their cannon mounted; ſo that inſtead of our merchants and trading people tranſacting their buſineſs, we ſee it filled with red coats, and have our ears dinn'd with the muſic of the drum and fife.——How would the merchants of London be ſtartled if they ſhould behold their exchange thus metamorphoſed.

Nov. 12. Reports that the ſmall pox is on board ſome of the Iriſh tranſports; we have certain information that ſeveral had that diſtemper on board, one of them ſince ſhe left Cork; notwithſtanding which, ſaid ſhip has been ſuffered, contrary to the law for preventing the ſpread of infectious diſorders to come up to town, and numbers of the paſſengers have been ſeen walking the ſtreets.——The bringing the ſmall pox among us at this time would open a new ſcene of diſtreſs, as we have a great addition to our numbers, and the riſque of taking the infection would deter our coaſters and country people from coming in this winter, with the neceſſary ſupplies of proviſions and fuel.

Nov. 13. The parade of the guards on week days, grander than in time of war, and nothing leſſened or omitted this Sabbath; Commodore Hood, and ſeveral men of war arrived from Halifax.——

BOSTON, NOVEMBER 17.

WE have authentic Advice by the Thames, Capt. Watt, from London, that the Petition of the Honourable his Majeſty's Council of the Province of the Maſſachuſetts-Bay, has been received by his Majeſty in a moſt Gracious Manner; and that the ſaid Petition, with his Excellency the Governor's Reaſoning in ſupport of it, would have a due Conſideration before the Meeting of Parliament, which was appointed for the 8th of November.

Monday laſt arrived here from Halifax, his Majeſty's Ship Romney, of 50 Guns, with a broad Pendant at Maſt Head, having on board Commodore Hood, Commander in Chief of his Majeſty's Ships in theſe Parts: The Commodore's Lady and Family alſo came with him, and intend to tarry here this Winter.

His Excellency Lord William Campbell, Governor of Nova-Scotia, came up in the Romney; as alſo ſeveral other Gentlemen. The day before arrived here the Viper Sloop of War, and Little Romney, from Halifax.

Our Advices by Captain Watt, from London, beſides the Collection from the public Prints, are, that it is the general Opinion among the People who know the Buſineſs of the Cabinet, that Lord Egmont will be ſoon appointed Secretary of State in the Room of Lord Shelburne, and in Caſe of Lord Chatham's Sickneſs continuing, ſome more conſiderable Changes will take Place. Lord Egmont is in Principle our beſt Friend, and is very deſirous of having all the Troops removed from the well ſettled Provinces, long ſince, and to have more Reliance on the Affections of the People there.

Some late Advices from London, are, that the Adminiſtration are ſolicitous for a Repeal of the late Acts of Parliament; but that while the King's Officers are male treated, they cannot in Honour do any Thing towards it: They ſay they are convinced of the Impropriety of the Board of Commiſſioners, and of the Impolicy of the late Acts; but the Honour of the Nation is at Stake, and that muſt be conſulted in their Repeal.——It is therefore wiſhed by our Friends, while we firmly adhere to and defend our Rights, that we ſhould conduct ourſelves with Wiſdom, Prudence, Steadineſs and Uniformity; and that in all our Proceedings we behave with due Reſpect to Government; and avoid every Thing that has the Appearance of Tumult: In this Way we ſhall ſtand fair in the Judgment of thoſe who ſhall conſider our Caſe, and in the End obtain Relief.

We hear that Sir William Baker and Mr. Haley are extremely friendly, and exert themſelves in our favour.

The following men of war are now riding in our harbour, viz. Romney, Mermaid, Glaſgow, Beaver, Viper, Senegal and Beuetta; alſo ſeveral armed cutters.

We hear the battalion men of the detachment from the 59th regiment now here, are to return ſoon to Halifax; but that the company of grenadiers are ſtill to remain here.

On Saturday ſailed for London the brigantine LAST ATTEMPT, Captain Lyde, belonging to John Hancock, Eſq; of this town.

NEW-YORK, NOVEMBER 17.

His Excellency William Franklin, Eſq; Governor of New-Jerſey, the Hon. Frederick Smith, Eſq; Chief Juſtice of New-Jerſey, the Hon. Thomas Walker, Eſq; Commiſſioner from Virginia, with ſeveral other Gentlemen, returned here a few Days ago from Fort-Stanwix, where they have been attending the Congreſs held by the Hon. Sir William Johnſon, Bart. with the Six United Nations, and their Tributaries.

We hear that about 3200 Indians, from the different Tribes of the Mohawks, Oneidas, Onondagoes, Cenecas, Cayugas, Tuſcaroras, Coghnawagas, Onoalgaages, Tutchoes, Shawanoſe, Delawares, Mingoes, of Ohio, Nanticokes, Conoys, Chugnuts, Scheras and Oriſcas, met Sir William Johnſon at Fort Stanwix, on the very important Buſineſs recommended by the King's Miniſters. And we have now the Pleaſure of aſſuring our Readers, that by his unwearied Application, Addreſs, and extraordinary Influence (which never appeared more conſpicuous than on this Occaſion) the Six Nations, and all their Tributaries, have granted a vaſt Extent of Country to his Majeſty, and to the Proprietaries of Pennſylvania, and ſettled an advantageous Boundary-Line, between their Hunting Country, and this and the other Colonies to the Southward, as far as the Cherokee River; for which they received the moſt valuable Preſents in Goods and Dollars that was ever given at any Conference ſince the Settlement of America. An uncommon Sobriety and good Humour prevailed through all the numerous Indian Camps for above 7 Weeks, and the Sachems and Warriors departed from the Congreſs in a very happy Diſpoſition of Mind, from a firm Perſuaſion, that his Majeſty will gratify them in their juſt and reaſonable Expectations.——It is therefore earneſtly to be hoped, that this grand Ceſſion and Boundary will be rightly improved, as they will undoubtedly ſecure the future Tranquility of theſe Colonies, and be productive of laſting commercial Advantages to them and Great-Britain.

Nov. 21. We hear the Line of Boundaries agreed on at the above Congreſs, is to begin at the Mouth of the Cherokee or Hogotege River, where it empties into the River Ohio, and running from thence upwards along the South Side of the ſaid River to Kittanning, which is above Fort Pitt, from thence by a direct Line to the neareſt Fork of the Weſt Branch of Saſquehanna; thence through the Alleghany Mountains, along the South Side of the ſaid Weſt Branch, till it comes oppoſite to the Mouth of a Creek called Tiadaghton; thence acroſs the Weſt Branch, and along the South Side of that Creek, and along the North Side of Burnet's Hills to a Creek called Awandas; thence down the ſame to the Eaſt Branch of Saſquehanna, and acroſs the ſame, and up the Eaſt Side of the River Oweg; from thence Eaſt to Delaware River, and up that River to oppoſite where Tianaderha falls into Saſquehanna; thence to Tianaderha, and up the Weſt Side thereof, and the Weſt Side of its Weſt Branch to the Head thereof, and thence by a direct Line to Canada Creek, where it empties into Wood Creek, at the Weſt End of the Carrying-Place beyond Fort-Stanwix, and extending Eaſtward from every Part of ſaid Line, as far as the Land formerly purchaſed, ſo as to comprehend the whole of the Land between the ſaid Line, and the purchaſed Lands or Settlements.

On Monday laſt a report prevailed that the effigies of Governor Bernard, and Sheriff Greenleaf of Boſton were to be exhibited that evening. At 4 o'clock in the afternoon, the troops in this city appeared under arms, at the lower barracks, where they remained till after 10 o'clock at night, during which time parties of them were continually patrolling the ſtreets, in order it is ſuppoſed to intimidate the inhabitants, and prevent their expoſing the effigies; notwithſtanding which, they made their appearance in the ſtreets, hanging on a gallows, between 8 and 9 o'clock, attended by a vaſt number of ſpectators, who ſaluted them with loud huzzas at the corner of every ſtreet they paſſed; and after having been expoſed ſome time at the coffee-houſe, they were there publicly burnt, amidſt the public acclamations of the populace, who teſtified their approbation by repeated huzzas, and immediately diſperſed, and returned to their reſpective homes.—The affair was conducted with ſuch regularity and good order, that no perſon ſuſtained the leaſt damage, either in his perſon or property.

PHILADELPHIA, NOVEMBER 10.

Yeſterday Se'nnight, the Houſe of Mr. Samuel Levis, of Springfield, in Cheſter County, was ſtruck with Lightning, which levelled a Chimney to the Roof, ſplit the Gable End of the Houſe in a ſurprizing Manner, and did conſiderable Damage to the Furniture. A young Woman, Daughter of Mr. Levis, was ſtruck down, to all Appearance, breathleſs for ſome Time, having her Clothes much rent, the upper Leather of her Shoes torn to pieces, and part of one of her Silver Buckles melted. She was taken up, put into a warm Bed, let Blood, and other proper Means uſed; after which ſhe recovered ſo as to be able to ſpeak, but was very ſore, being much ſcorched, and is now in a fair Way of Recovery. The reſt of the Family being in another Part of the Houſe, providentially received no Hurt.

Nov. 17. Since our laſt Mrs. Rachel Willſon, an eminent Preacher among Friends, who lately arrived here, in Captain Falconer, from England, ſet out by Land for South-Carolina.——She preached ſeveral Times in this Province and New-Jerſey, to the great Satisfaction of Thouſands of well-diſpoſed People of all Denominations.

Extract of a letter from Edenton, in North-Carolina, dated October 19, 1768.

"In one of our weſtern counties, we have had a very dangerous mob; a number of armed men, calling themſelves REGULATORS, and refuſing to pay any debts or taxes, declaring no court ſhould be held, nor any executions levied by the ſheriff, put all buſineſs to a ſtand for ſome time. The militia was called to the amount of 1500 men, with the Governor, and ſeveral of his Council, at their head, and encamped in the town of Hillſborough, where they threw up ſome breaſt works. The Regulators encamped about three miles from the Governor and his party, and it is ſaid their numbers were nearly equal to his. After lying in this manner for a conſiderable time, on ſome remonſtrances made to the Regulators, they diſperſed, giving up ſome of their headmen; and although no blood was ſhed, it is looked upon as a ſerious affair, and by an eſtimate lately made, it is thought it will coſt the province above 10,000l. The greateſt grievance complained of by theſe deluded people, is the want of a paper currency, or ſome medium, to anſwer the trade of the country. Where theſe matters will end, I know not, but this ſpirit of regulating ſeems too general, which makes property in this country very precarious."

GRENADA, September 3. We hear that the 62d regiment now at Dominica have received orders to hold themſelves ready to embark for England, and that they will be replaced by detachments from the 70th regiment in garriſon here, and from the 32d at St. Vincent.

September 24. On Sunday laſt between 11 and 12 at night a ſmart ſhock of an Earthquake was felt here, which continued about half a minute, but did no damage.

October 7. Laſt Thurſday arrived here his Majeſty's Packet-Boat, the Duncannon, Capt. Edwards, in 7 weeks from Falmouth; in which came paſſenger, Elias John Paillaret, Eſq; who, we are informed, is to ſucceed Mr. Symſon in the Office of Regiſter in Chancery: And Mr. Symſon is appointed by the Lords of the Admiralty, to be Judge of the Court of Vice-Admiralty in all the Iſlands of this government.

ROSEAU, in Dominica, October 8. We hear from Engliſh Harbour in Antigua, of the death of William Barkham, Eſq; keeper of his Majeſty's ſtores.

We hear from Gaudaloupe that the Governor of that Iſland has ordered all the Britiſh veſſels to leave it by the 10th inſtant.

October 15. Letters from Barbados of the 30th September mention, that the ſmall-pox begins to rage there with great violence, and that a number of the inhabitants had lately been carried off by fevers, among whom were Judge Peare, Baron of the Exchequer; Miſs Rous, youngeſt daughter of the Preſident, Mrs. Farrel, &c. &c.

SAVANNAH, (in Georgia) December 14. Laſt Monday evening the Hon. James Mackay and Lachlan M'Gillivray, Eſqrs. returned from marking the Indian Line, which is now finiſhed from Williams's Creek, fifty miles from Auguſta, to the flowing of the tides on Saint Mary's River: And here we muſt not omit to do juſtice to the uncommon addreſs ſhewn by Mr. M'Gillivray in treating with the Indian Deputies; nor was he unaſſiſted by Captain Mackay, who on all occaſions diſplayed the moſt ſolid judgment, and joined his opinion with the greateſt harmony. In ſhort, the ardour, unwearied diligence, and unanimity, with which theſe gentlemen have conducted this intereſting and important buſineſs, calls in the ſtrongeſt manner for the public thanks, and muſt do them laſting honour in the opinion of all well-wiſhers of their country.

XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX

CHARLES-TOWN, DECEMBER 27.

ON the 2d Inſtant arrived at Georgia, the Ship Prince George, Captain Robert Beatty, from Belfaſt, with 114 Settlers for that Province; the Reverend Mr. David M'Kay, appointed Paſtor for the Williamſburgh Congregation in this Province, came Paſſenger in ſaid Ship.—On the 7th of October, in Lat. 46, 58, Long. 24, 39, Capt. Beatty came acroſs a French Schooner from Newfoundland for St. Maloes, who had carried away her Foremaſt and the Head of her Mainmaſt, and was otherwiſe in great Diſtreſs, the People on board of her imagining ſhe would ſoon ſink, got Captain Beatty to take them on board, and he landed them on the 13th, being nine in Number, at Turcera, one of the Weſtern Iſlands.

Captain John Lightenſtone is appointed Commander of the Scout Boat at Georgia, in the Room of Captain David Cutler Braddock, who has reſigned.

A violent Storm happened at the Havana the latter End of October, which drove 5 Spaniſh Ships of the Line aſhore, three of whom, with ſeveral other Veſſels, were entirely loſt.

Advices from Penſacola, ſay, "That the French inhabitants of New-Orleans, having aſſembled in a body, and confined their Governor, on the 30th of October, determined to expell the Spaniſh Governor Don Antonio d'Ulloa, and inſiſted upon his departure at the expiration of three days, when (on the 2d of November) he accordingly embarked, in a large Spaniſh ſhip for Havana, leaving a frigate with the mariners, not in a condition to put to Sea, and two hoſtages for payment of debts due to the French. Four of the principal French gentlemen were to embark in 3 or 4 days, to lay their affairs before the court of France, and ſolicit redreſs of ſundry grievances."

The Inhabitants of the City of New-York, have taken the ſpirited Reſolution to inſtruct their Repreſentatives to take proper Notice of the Maſſachuſetts and Virginia Circular Letters; and likewiſe, not to grant any Money for the Uſe of the King's Troops, without entering it on their Journals, as given freely by them, and not in Obedience to the Act of Parliament.
